

SDSU Swine Day 2017

Wednesday, October 11, 2017

South Dakota State University Swine Education and Research Facility

2221 Medary Ave, Brookings, SD 57006

Schedule

- 8:45 am registration begins at Swine Education and Research Facility
- 9:00 am poster session with graduate students by posters
- 10:00 am welcome comments in the classroom - Dr. Joe Cassady
- 10:15 am Pearls of Wisdom from a Lifetime of Experiences - Dr. Mike Brumm
- 11:30 am lunch (sponsored by the South Dakota Pork Producers Council)
- 1:00 pm swine faculty research - program & research highlights
- 2:30 pm discussion and facility tour

SDSU Swine Day will be held in the South Dakota State University Swine Education and Research Facility located off of Medary Avenue north of the SDSU campus, with check-in and onsite registration beginning at 8:45 am and the poster session set to begin at 9 am.

Lunch will be served, so registration is requested by visiting <https://sdsuswineday.eventbrite.com>.

For more information, contact Ryan Samuel, Assistant Professor and Extension swine specialist at 605-688-5431 or ryan.samuel@sdstate.edu.